PMVCD Trustees Approve 2021-2022 District Operations Budget

By wstockwin@hughes.net

Placer Mosquito Vector Control District manager, Joel Buettner, gave his board of trustees a 'good news/bad news' financial report at their May 17 meeting. The good news was that he was presenting the board with a $5.3 million balanced budget for adoption, and that district revenues for 2021-22 were up 3.1%.

The bad news was that the increasing urbanization of western Placer County, which is moving new homes and neighborhoods into closer proximity to rice-growing areas, would undoubtedly raise future mosquito control costs. He cited higher chemical costs and the need to hire more employees as the primary reasons for anticipated higher expenditures.

Following the manager's report the board unanimously approved the 2021-22 assessment of $31.91 per single-family households for mosquito control and maintenance of the district headquarters in Roseville.

Buettner also advised his board that, regardless of CDC and state COVID recommendations, he intended to keep mask and social-distancing protocols in place until all district employees are vaccinated.

Otherwise, he said, employees would be segregated into vaccinated and unvaccinated groups that could negatively impact the tight working relationship district employees had always enjoyed.

So much is happening this month in the Colfax business community ... let's dig right in.

NEED A MASSAGE?
Owner Carlymae Plourde of Colfax Healing Massage has moved from S. Auburn to 15 S. Main st. in a beautiful studio and office to continue her therapeutic massage work. As soon as you walk into her new space, you feel better already because of the calming colors, the healing scents of essential oils, the soft lighting and her welcoming presence.

Carly specializes in Neuromuscular Trigger Point therapy, which I hope to experience myself in the near future. When I do, I'll report back in a future column.

She has been a Certified Massage Therapist (CMT) for six years. The other techniques that she is certified to do: Swedish, Deep Tissue, Myofascial Release, Prenatal and Post-Delivery, Cupping and Organic Essential Oils.

Carly's Colfax Healing Massage services are available by appointment only on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The other days of the week, she works out of a studio in Nevada City.

Give Carly a call at 346-3138 and get more information at www.ColfaxHealingMassage.com.

Chamber of Commerce Notes and Events

By Sally Laughlin

It's happening – we are in the process of reopening! It's hard to change gears when we've all been waiting so long, but our calendar is filling up, fundraising is progressing and events are coming up fast.

Our first CACC Mixer of 2021 is slated for Friday June 18th 5:30-7:30 at the Railhead Saloon, co-hosted by The Basement on Main Street. Help us celebrate the Railhead's 2nd anniversary in their new location. CACC Members $5, Non- Members $7.

Next on the calendar is our Independence Day Celebration on Saturday July 3rd in downtown Colfax. It will be an exciting day filled with arts and crafts vendors, delicious food, beer gardens, bounce houses and our Chamber's second annual Dunk Tank!

Did I mention our spectacular Fireworks Show! This is a community event that is free to the public, supported by our Chamber, City of Colfax, our local sponsors, and organized by the Colfax Green Machine and our very own Andrea Harrison!

Everyone should keep in mind, however, that there is always the chance those fireworks could be cancelled by dry, windy conditions.

As the buzz surrounding a strong reopening economy grows, so is our membership. Our calendar is filling up with Ribbon Cuttings. We would like to welcome our new members: RJB Bookkeeping Services, Fireworx Farms, Dutch Flat Community Center, Edward Jones/Heidi Headington and Cat's Animal Rescue & Sanctuary.

All of our Chamber events are available for viewing on our website www.colfaxchamber.com.

The Colfax Pharmacy is now giving COVID-19 vaccinations by appointment only, Monday through Friday, starting at 1:00 p.m. Call 346-1004 to make your appointment.

time to share a story and to share some love. It is an honor for me to share the incredible talent of these authors and illustrators. They make us smile, they make us laugh and they make us think."

The local organizer for DPIL is Jennie Harless, a former elementary school teacher in Sacramento, who heard about the program from her sister. Now, her passion is Dolly's Imagination Library. The local program involves children in Colfax, Foresthill and Sheridan.

So, sign up your birth-to-five year old children for this free book program that will inspire your children's imagination. For more information contact Jennie at jrharless@gmail.com, or via her Website: https://ImaginationLibrary.com. On that Website, you will also find "Bedtime stories with Dolly" videos in which she reads stories while propped up in her bed. She reads directly to the camera and the child at home.

A DISCOVERY CENTER FOR COLFAX FAMILIES
